EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.]

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a JOINT CASE (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days BEFORE the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors*Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $46 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total fee $306)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $281)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1167 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $1213)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $46 administrative fee: Total fee $246)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy\_forms.html#procedure.

CHAPTER 7

RULE 2016(B) DISCLOSURE OF COMPENSATION FOR ATTORNEY FOR DEBTORS

This sets out our agreement regarding this firm's representation of you in a Chapter 7 bankruptcy case involving issues and/or debts related to a current or prior business to be filed in Austin, Texas. We generally charge a "flat fee" for this type of representation for basic agreed upon services. This fee includes attorney and legal assistant time and routine out of pocket expenses (long distance, copies, postage, faxes).

Total Attorney Fees: $2500*Total Attorney Fees Paid: $2500*Balance due : $0

The attorney fee for filing your case will be $2500, plus the filing fee of $306 and the debt counseling/personal financial management class fee of $40, plus any additional amounts set out below. If you choose to do the class over the telephone rather than online, the cost is $60.

The services included in the flat fee for a business Chapter 7 are:

Pre-filing:

- initial client meeting
- homework package meeting(s)
- signing meeting
- preparation of petition, schedules of assets and liabilities, and statement of financial affairs
- responding to creditor calls and correspondence

Post-filing:

- responding to creditor calls and correspondence
- attendance at creditors meeting
- review of security agreements and up to two reaffirmation agreements and attending hearings on the same
- preparation of and hearings on two motions to avoid non-purchase money liens or judicial liens on homestead and hearings on same
- preparation of responses to objections to exemptions

Additional fees will be charged for the following:

Pre-filing:

- credit report ($30 individual, $50 joint)
- more than 40 creditors (40 - 70, add $250; 70 - 100, add $500; 100+ we will negotiate a fee)
- more than $100,000 in unsecured debt (up to $150,000, add $250; more than $150,000, add $500; more than $250,000, we will negotiate a fee)
- affidavit of special circumstances ($350)
- non-filing spouse ($250)

-responding to motions to dismiss by the U.S. Trustee based on ineligibility to file Chapter 7 ($400 per hour plus expenses)

-adversary proceedings ($400 per hour plus expenses)

-discovery ($400 per hour plus expenses)

In the event that additional fees are charged, those fees will be required to be paid either pre-filing or post-filing, as designated above, unless otherwise agreed.

Our agreement to represent you does not include filing or defending adversary proceedings. In the event an adversary proceeding is filed against you, we will negotiate our representation and fee at that time. (An adversary would generally be a dispute regarding the dischargeability of a particular debt.) Our agreement to represent you in a bankruptcy case also does not constitute an agreement to initiate or defend any litigation on your behalf, whether in bankruptcy court or state court. We do not defend state court collection lawsuits.

Due to reporting errors by creditors and credit reporting agencies, your credit report after filing may not accurately reflect the status of your debts after your bankruptcy discharge. It is the responsibility of your individual creditors to report the status of your debts properly. We cannot guarantee that your creditors will do so. Although we can usually help you correct these problems, we do charge a fee for that service which is not included in the fee for the Chapter 7.

We will provide you with a copy of all of the documents which we file on your behalf in your case at the time they are filed. At the time your discharge is entered, the Court will mail you a copy of the discharge order. These documents are very important. They are the documents a home lender will typically require when you apply for a home loan. Once your case is closed, we send your file to offsite storage. If you request copies of these documents after we send your file offsite, we charge a $75 fee for retrieval of these documents. In addition, our records are destroyed after 5 years and we may not be able to retrieve copies after that time.

By executing this agreement, you are representing to us that you will pay the agreed upon fee in the agreed upon installments. By executing this agreement you agree that if you fail to make the agreed upon payments of fees, we may cease representation of you immediately and that you will not oppose a motion to withdraw as your attorneys.

This agreement is not binding until it is signed by both parties and the full retainer is paid. Our offer to represent you expires if you have not executed this engagement letter and paid at least $700 within 90 days after the date of your consultation. If your case is not filed within 6 months of execution of this agreement, our agreement to represent you expires and we will keep any monies received for services rendered.

The source of compensation was the Debtor(s). The source of compensation to be paid is the Debtor(s). I have not agreed to share the above described compensation with any other person, unless this client(s) was referred to us by the Lawyer Referral Service, in which case we have agreed to a 15% referral fee for all fees received over $400.00.
